All entries must be the work of the exhibitor and completed since the previous Oklahoma State Fair except as noted.

CREATIVE ARTS DEPARTMENT REGULATIONS

- The Oklahoma State Fair reserves the right to reject any exhibit offered if it is objectionable in any way, if it requires an excessive amount of space, or if the capacity of the department has been reached. Any contest may be cancelled for lack of entries.
- Your items will be handled with care, however, Oklahoma State Fair, Inc. is not responsible for items that are damaged while on display during the Fair. Exhibitors MAY NOT supply their own display stands. Only OSF stands will be used for display.
- Each exhibit will be evaluated by qualified individuals and the decision of the judge(s) is final. All cash prizes will be paid from the awards as marked by the judges and not from ribbons that may be attached to the exhibits. Judges are instructed not to award cash prizes unless the exhibit is deemed worthy of the placing awarded. Premium payouts for the Creative Arts Department will be mailed to exhibitors after the close of the Fair.
- Within 90 days from the last day of the 2022 Oklahoma State Fair, it is the responsibility of the Payee to file, in writing, a claim for lost or incorrect awards.
- If it is ascertained that an exhibitor has made any false statement with regards to any article or exhibit, or if any exhibitor attempts to harass or interfere with the judge or judges in the performance of their duties, the exhibitor shall be excluded from competition and forfeit all premiums.
- Any protest must be made in writing and accompanied by a deposit of $50, which will be forfeited if protest is not sustained. Said protest must state plainly the cause of complaint or appeal and must be filed with the Manager by 5 p.m. on Thursday of the closing week of the Fair. Judges will be encouraged to view exhibits after items have been placed on display with names. If they believe that an exhibitor is not in the correct skill level, that judge will be encouraged to protest the placement.
- Every effort will be made to display entries in an attractive arrangement; however, items entered for competition will be displayed through 3rd place. Other entries will be displayed only as space is available and at the discretion of the superintendents.

INFANT CRISIS SERVICES CONTEST

Division 3573

Every year, Creative Arts participants enter beautiful hand-made artwork, crafts and sewn items to be displayed during the Fair. Now, you have an opportunity to donate your exhibits to an Oklahoma organization that helps children in need.

Infant Crisis Services provides life-sustaining formula, food and diapers to babies and toddlers in time of crisis, because no baby should go hungry.

Exhibitors may enter up to three items per class. If you would like to enter more than three items in a particular class, please call 405-948-6731.

All items entered into this division will be displayed together during the annual Oklahoma State Fair and then donated to Infant Crisis Services after the Fair ends. Award ribbons will be returned to exhibitors at the close of the Fair.

A special ribbon will be awarded to each exhibitor.

BEST OF SHOW Rosette

Organization Information:

It is hard to imagine anything more stressful than sending your baby to bed hungry, yet it happens every day in central Oklahoma. Infant Crisis Services strives to make a difference in the life of a hungry baby. They provide formula, food, diapers, clothing and other essential items to babies during a very critical stage in a baby's development. Infant Crisis Services also serves as a link to connect families with other helping agencies and programs that lead to self-sufficiency. They believe each individual should be treated with compassion and respect.

Statistics:

One in four Oklahoma babies go to bed hungry.
85% of brain development occurs during the first 3 years of life.
There are close to 38,000 babies and toddlers living in poverty in central Oklahoma.
In 2020 - 2021, Infant Crisis Services served more than 21,900 babies and toddlers.
In 2020 - 2021, Infant Crisis Services gave away 8,325 bottles with 233,100 bottles of formula and 972,752 diapers.

THREADS OF COMPASSION SCARVES
Division 3574

This Creative Arts contest will benefit survivors of sexual violence. Threads of Compassion provides scarves to hospitals that are given to survivors when they seek emergency treatment.

Scarves must be knitted or crocheted and can be any color or pattern, using acrylic yarn. Scarves must be 5 - 8" wide and 65" long to ensure anyone can enjoy wearing one.

Exhibitors may enter up to three items per class. If you would like to enter more than three items in a particular class, please call 405-948-6731.

All items entered into this division will be displayed together during the annual Oklahoma State Fair then donated to Threads of Compassion, Oklahoma City to bring joy to survivors of sexual violence. Award ribbons will be returned to exhibitors at the close of the Fair.

- 01. Knitted scarf
- 02. Crocheted scarf

AWARDS

Ribbons will be awarded through 10th place in each class.
A special ribbon will be awarded to each exhibitor.

BEST OF SHOWRosette

Organization Information:

Threads of Compassion is an opportunity to comfort recent survivors of sexual violence. The idea is simple - anyone whose life has been affected by sexual assault or abuse (either through a direct experience or through supporting a survivor) is welcome to knit or crochet a scarf that will be given to a survivor of sexual violence when the survivor enters a hospital for emergency treatment.

Starting in 2010, Threads of Compassion began working with the Oklahoma City YWCA to provide this service. The Oklahoma City chapter is following the precedence of other Threads chapters around North America.

For more information about the organization, check out www.threadsokc.org.

QUILTS OF VALOR
Division 3575

This contest offers an opportunity for quilters to create quilts that will be donated to the Quilts of Valor Foundation, which supports veterans who have been touched by war.

The basic requirements will be emailed to exhibitors following their registration but can be viewed at any time at <http://www.qovf.org/quilters-questions/basic-requirements>.

Each exhibitor may enter 2 items in this division. All items entered into this division will be displayed during the annual Oklahoma State Fair then donated to the Quilts of Valor Foundation. Award ribbons will be returned to exhibitors at the close of the Fair and premiums will be processed and mailed normally.

Note: If an exhibitor would like to present their quilt to a specific veteran, please request during check-in that the piece be available at reclaim. The name of the veteran and the QOVF request number must be provided when picking up the quilt to avoid duplicate presentations by the QOV organization.

AWARDS

A special ribbon will be awarded to each exhibitor.

- BEST OF SHOW..... Rosette & $25
- 2nd Place Overall..... Rosette & $15

Organization Information:

Founded in 2003, the mission statement of the foundation is “to cover all service members touched by war with comforting and healing Quilts of Valor.”
